

STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE

HeartBeat Trust has always been committed to ensuring that we operate to the best possible standards across the provision of our clinical, research and educational services.

To this end, we are committed to protecting the data and privacy of all of our service users and where information is required by third parties we have express consent from those to whom it is relevant.

In line with the laws of the land, we will endeavour to strive to become an employer of choice, protecting the rights of all employees and service users to the highest standards of care and professionalism.

Where these standards are not being upheld we will protect the rights of the individual reporting same under the Protected Disclosures Act 2014 and take immediate corrective action to rectify and shortcomings.
